Opening Prayer

As we gather this morning, we ask the Lord to be with us as we begin a new week.

God our Father, through our prayers, fasting, and acts of kindness this Lent, help us to reveal your glory to the people around us. Open our eyes to see the wonder of your creation, and open our ears to listen to the words of your Son. We make this prayer through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

This weeks theme is This is my Son – the Beloved.

We will look at two pieces of Scripture – one is Baptism of Jesus by John and the other is the transfiguration of Jesus. In both of these passages we realise that Jesus is truly the Son of God and a very special person.

A reading from the Gospel of Mark Glory to you O Lord

Then a cloud appeared and covered them with its shadow, and a voice came from the cloud, 'This is my own dear Son—listen to him!' They took a quick look around but did not see anyone else; only Jesus was with them. As they came down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, 'Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has risen from death.' They obeyed his order, but among themselves they started discussing the matter, 'What does this 'rising from death' mean?'

The Word of the Lord
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Reflection

In this scripture Jesus is baptised by John. A voice appears and it becomes clear to the people who are there that this man is truly a special person. The voice describes Jesus as beloved and states that he is well pleased with him. When we are baptised we are saying that we are going to live a new life in Jesus. It is our way of announcing to our friends and family that we belong to Jesus.

Opening Prayer

As we gather this morning, we ask the Lord to be with us as we begin a new day.

Hail Mary, full of grace, The Lord is with thee; Blessed art thou amongst women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Amen

Reflection:

In the reading today we here the story of the Transfiguration. This demonstrated God's glory and showed who Jesus was. It also revealed to the disciples beyond a shadow of a doubt, that they were putting their faith into the true Son of God.

Opening Prayer

As we gather this morning, let us pray together the prayer Our Father taught us:

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, On earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses.

As we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil

Amen

This week you have listened to scripture readings which were all focused on the theme of This is my Son – the Beloved.

Think about the messages that were given. In both scripture passages we discover that Jesus was indeed a very special person who came to this earth to teach us ways in which we can live a good life and be part of a community that can serve others

How do you already serve others?

Let us join together in prayer.

We pray that you will open our ears to hear the voice of your Son, Jesus. Help us always to follow his teaching and so build your world of mercy and love.

Lord in your mercy

Hear our prayer

We pray that you guide all the children, families and staff in our school. Help us always to listen to one another with kindness and respect.

Lord in your mercy

Hear our prayer

We pray for all children, for those who are poor, hungry, sad or scared. May they find hope in your love and may we always be ready to help them.

Lord in your mercy

Hear our prayer
