Morning Prayer

Reader: In Pope Francis' letter, he asks us to care for the earth by doing three things. Live wisely, think deeply and love generously. Let us pray together using a prayer based on St Francis' words.

Reader: We thank you Lord for the earth which is our home. Help us to work together to protect the planet from harm.
Lord in your mercy – Hear our Prayer

Reader: We thank you Lord for water, which gives us life. Help us not to waste this precious resource.
Lord in your mercy – Hear our Prayer

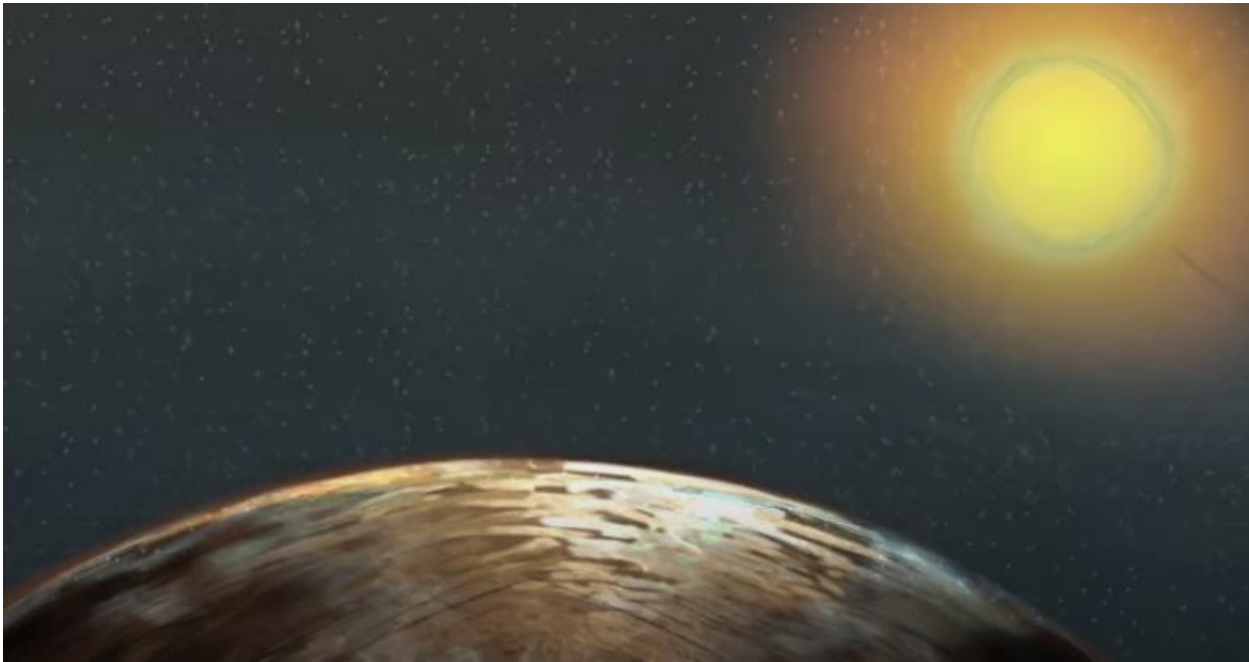

Reader: We thank you Lord for all the plants and creatures you have given us. Help us to not do anything which causes them harm.
Lord in your mercy – Hear our Prayer.

Reader: We thank you Lord for all the people we share the world with. Help us to work together to take care of each other and our home, so that no one suffers.
Lord in your mercy – Hear our Prayer.

Laudato Si

God has given us the earth as our home. It's our common home because we share it with everyone. We are a family and like every family we need to work together to look after our home.

In the first book of the Bible, we hear how God made the whole world, from the stars in the sky to the deepest oceans. People, land, water and mountains are all part of God's wonderful creation and we have a responsibility to look after it all.

In Laudato Si, we are urged by Pope Francis to look after the earth - Our Common Home
