Prayer for Peace

For peace in your country
For the victims of violence everywhere
For those struggling for peace and justice
For churches in conflict situations
For a world without war and violence

Lead me from death to life,
from falsehood to truth.
Lead me from despair to hope,
from fear to trust.
Lead me from hate to love,
from war to peace.
Let peace fill our beings,
Our world and our universe.
Amen

Moina Michael and the Poppy

9th November, 1918 – Moina Michael sits in the office of the YMCA Overseas War Secretaries Headquarters in New York. On her break she flips through the pages of the 'Ladies Home Journal' and finds a reprint of the 'In Flanders Field' poem. She vows then to always remember the troops and writes her own poem in reply on the back of an envelope.

She decides to wear a poppy to remember the men and goes out to buy as many silk poppies as she can from a local department store. She sells and gives them away to the delegates of a war conference taking place in the building. They tell the rest of the delegates about the idea.

Reflection Point.

How does the poppy work to remind us about the sacrifice of soldiers in war?

Where did the idea come from to use a poppy as a symbol of Remembrance?

Can you explain why?

In nomine Patris, et Filii et Spiritus Sancti. Amen

End of Day Prayer

by your loving kindness,
enable me to come to you,

Morning Prayer - Gloria

Glory to God in the highest. And on earth peace to men of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory.

O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father almighty. O Lord Jesus Christ, the Only-begotten Son. O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you Who take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

You Who take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You Who sit at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are holy. You alone are the Lord. You alone, O Jesus Christ, are most high. Together with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

Morning Prayer - The Lord's Prayer

Our Father

Who art in Heaven

Hallowed be Thy name;

Thy Kingdom come,

Thy will be done

On earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our trespasses

As we forgive those who trespass against us;

and lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil

Amen

Remembrance Day Reflection

Today we think about those people who have lost their lives in conflicts past and present. It is a national opportunity to remember the service and sacrifice of all those that have defended our freedoms and protected our way of life.

We also think about those members of our families who have died. Let us pray that they find peace and remember that they have eternal life with God the Father.

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.*

Morning Prayer

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.

Protect them as they protect us.

Bless them and their families,

For the selfless acts they perform for us,
in our time of need.

I ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Saviour.

Amen

In nomine Patris, et Filii et Spiritus Sancti. Amen
