1 Corinthians 12:3-7. 12-13

No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit. There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

What does this mean for us?

Every one of us contributes something different and valuable in our own way.

We are all varied and diverse people who make up the Body, which is Christ.

We all have experience of various organisations and companies, but none of these other bodies makes up a person.

Together we all make up that person who is Christ, since as Christians we all live and operate through Christ's Spirit.

“Every one of us contributes something different and valuable in our own way”

ROMANS 12:5

So in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.

We are one body in Christ but we all have different gifts, talents and roles.

To be one body though we have to work together and support each other especially when one of us needs help.

We are one body in Christ because of the work of Christ and the Holy Spirit who has brought us together on this earth.
