

The percentage of people over 18 who can read and write	The number of people seen by one doctor
The amount of money a country makes from its imports and exports	How old on average people in a country live to
The number of children who die under the age of 1	The amount of food eaten each day
In a LIC it can be as low as 50.	In a LIC they make less money from imports and exports
There are less people who can read and write as children don't always go to school	There are lots of people per 1 doctor
More children die under the age of 1	People consume less food and so eat fewer calories.